To whoever it may concern

This is to certify that Mr. Kapish Madhwani (Student, VESIT-Mumbai) has successfully completed a research internship under my supervision during the Spring Semester of 2023.

They worked on my project on Brand Empathy Detection and helped with developing an app which will be used for further research and publication by my team.

I found Kapish to be a dependable and hard-working resource during the project and wish him all the success for future endeavours.
