Marathi Bhasha Divas or Marathi Language Day

Marathi Bhasa Divas or Marathi Language Day is celebrated annually on February 27 to honour the birth anniversary of famous Marathi poet Vishnu Vaman Shirwadkar, who was popularly known as 'Kusumagraj'.

Shirwadkar was an eminent Marathi poet, playwright, novelist, short story writer, and humanist. He wrote a lot about freedom, justice, and social evils like poverty.

The day is celebrated to recognise and honour the greatness of Marathi literature. Marathi language contains some of the oldest literature of all modern Indo-Aryan languages, dating from about 900 AD.

The government started celebrating 'Marathi Rajbhasha Gaurav Din' after Kusumagraj's demise in 1999. Two special awards for individuals taking initiatives to promote Marathi literature were also started.

In the library we have organised one event. We display the photographs of some famous poets in Marathi with their name also mentioned and the actual task was to identify the poet and write their book name or the poem. Students have taken part in the event and given nice feedback also. Even the faulty were also interested and have taken the initiative.

The winner of the event were given the appreciation certificate.
