'Azadi Ka Amrut Mahotsav' is an initiative of the Government of India to celebrate and commemorate 75 years of independence of progressive India and the glorious history of its people, culture and achievements. The Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi inaugurated the 'Azadi Ka Amrut Mahotsav' by flagging off 'Dandi March' from Sabarmati Ashram, Ahmedabad on 12th March, 2021. The celebrations started 75 weeks before our 75th anniversary of Independence and will end on 15th August, 2023. Henceforth, all the educational institutions have been advised to celebrate "Azadi Ka Amrut Mahotsav".

In light of the above, VES Institute of Technology's Department of Library under the guidance of Internal Quality Cell (IQAC) in Association with the Institution's Innovation Cell (IIC) resolves to participate pro-actively in Mahotsav by conducting book exhibition related to the freedom struggle, ideas, achievements and actions so that the students can absorb the magnitude of sacrifices this nation has seen for its independence, the progress it has made socially, politically and economically over the decades and celebrate the diversity that it holds. The objective is to increase awareness and interest in the nation's journey and prospective growth.

Dr. Meenakshi Tyagi (Library Incharge) was the coordinator for the event and convened by VESIT, Library Committee Members under the patronage of Dr. J.M. Nair, Principal and Dr. Vijayalakshmi M, vice principal VESIT.

3. Constitution Day Samvidhan Diwas On 26 November 2022

Since 2015, the Constitution Day or the Samvidhan Diwas has been celebrated every year on November 26. The day, also called the National Law Day, marks the formal adoption of the Constitution of India by the Constituent Assembly on November 26, 1949. The year 2015 marked the 125th anniversary of Babasaheb Bhimrao Ambedkar, the Chairman of the Drafting Committee of the Constitution. Prior to that, the day was observed as National Law Day as a tribute to Ambedkar, the first law minister of the country.

Vivekanand Education Society's Institute of Technology (VESIT), Mumbai organized a National-level quiz on 26th November 2022, on the occasion of Samvidhan Divas as an effort to enhance and encourage students to look beyond their textual or tool to measure the growth in the knowledge. The Quiz was conducted by Library Department under the guidance of Internal Quality Cell (IQAC) in Association with the Institution's Innovation Cell (IIC). Dr. Meenakshi Tyagi (Library Incharge) was the coordinator for the quiz and convened by VESIT, Library Committee Members under the patronage of Dr. J.M. Nair, Principal and Dr. Vijayalakshmi M, Vice principal VESIT.

The Quiz was conducted successfully online on Google forms and more than 228 students & some staff members participated in the quiz. The quiz was free of cost for all the staff members of the Colleges, Students and Professionals working in the domain and E-certificates were given to all participants who have scored 40% and above.

4. VESLiT Circle Vigilance Awareness Week 2022

VESLiT Circle collaborated with the Union Bank of India on account of Vigilance Awareness Week 2022. Vigilance Awareness Week is observed every year as a part of the multi-pronged approach of the Central Vigilance Commission, to encourage all citizens to participate in the prevention of and fight against Corruption collectively.

The theme for this year is “Corruption-free India for a developed nation.” All the events under this collaboration were designed under this theme.

Event 1 - Naatak

Fig 10: Poster of Natak-Group Drama Event

Vivekanand Education Society's Institute of Technology

Event 4 - Debate

Fig 18:Poster of Debate Competition

All the events and event details were announced 2 weeks before the final competition.

18 teams registered for the competition. The format was Oxford style with 2 minutes of introduction, 6 minutes of rebuttal, and 2 minutes of conclusion for all the preliminary rounds.

The first round was held on the 29th of September. With that respect, all the teams put forward really strong arguments regardless of the complexity of the topic. The semi-finals took place on the 3rd and 4th of October. The format for the final round was the same as the preliminary rounds but now with 3 minutes of introduction, 10 minutes of rebuttal, and 3 minutes of conclusion.

5. VESLiT The Poster Making Competition on Ethics, Code of Conduct and Zero Tolerance

On 9th March, the VESIT Students' Club in association with VESLiT Circle (Literature Circle) and IQAC organized a poster-making competition named Kalakaari at Vivekanand Education Society's Institute of Technology (VESIT).

The theme of the competition was Ethics, Code of Conduct, and Zero Tolerance. The competition was held in the Language Lab at 12:30 pm, and there were 9 entries submitted by the students of VESIT. The posters were made using different mediums, and some of them were digital posters.

The competition was a part of VESLiT week, which was full of various literary events. The students were enthusiastic and excited to participate in the competition. They were seen brainstorming ideas and discussing their approach to convey the theme through their posters.

The submissions were impressive, and it was evident that the students had put in a lot of effort and thought into their creations. The posters were not only visually appealing, but they also had a strong message that conveyed the theme effectively.

The competition had three cash prizes for the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd positions. The winner of the first prize would receive 3K, the second prize winner would receive 2K, and the third prize winner would receive 1K.

Name of Winners:-

1. Shreya Kate
2. Srimathi Srinivasan
3. Suleman

Vivekanand Education Society's Institute of Technology

The judges of the events were Dr.Manisha Tiwari and Mr.Vijay Shejwalkar .They evaluated the entries based on various criteria such as creativity, relevance to the theme, and overall impact. The judges found it difficult to pick the winners as all the entries were of high quality.

The Kalakaari poster-making competition was a great success, and it provided an excellent opportunity for the students to showcase their artistic skills and creativity while also promoting the importance of ethics, code of conduct, and zero tolerance policy. The competition was full of enthusiasm and excitement, and it was evident that the students thoroughly enjoyed participating in it.

The competition was not only beneficial for the students but also for the organizers, as it provided them with an opportunity to showcase their organizational skills. The organizers ensured that the competition was conducted smoothly and without any hassles.

In conclusion, the Kalakaari poster-making competition was an excellent initiative taken by the VESIT Students' Club in association with VESLit Circle (Literature Circle) and IQAC. The competition encouraged the students to think creatively and promote the importance of ethics, code of conduct, and zero tolerance. To further give impetus to the awareness of the ethic,code of conduct and zero tolerance among the students of the institution the posters were displayed .
